Day Care

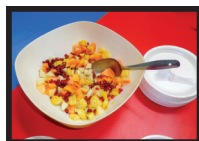

Diwali Party

Festivals help in developing emotional and social quotient of small children. The festival of Diwali was celebrated in Day Care with great fervor and zeal. Children were told about the importance of the festival which universally symbolizes the Victory of Good over Evil. Little kiddos came dressed up in traditional apparel. They made “Diwali Card” for their parents and enjoyed eating party food.

Fruit Party

To strengthen the concept of “Fruits” and to inculcate healthy eating habits in children, “Fruit Party” was organised. Children were made to identify names of different fruits. We reiterated importance of eating fruits and its nutritional value. Children enjoyed eating fruit chaat.

Visit to Fruit Mart

Experiential learning is a great way to fortify a concept. In continuance with learning the concept of “Fruits”, Day Care children made a visit to a nearby “Fruit Mart”. The shopkeeper patiently demonstrated different varieties of fruits. We also exhibited how fruits are weighed and money needs to be paid in lieu of fruits purchased.

Nursery

Pink Day

Pink Day was celebrated in the Nursery Wing on October 12, 2017. The kids came dressed in pink dresses. The day began with assembly followed by other fun activities like Flamingo craft and onion printing. The children were super excited while playing ‘Tippy Tippy Tap’ game. The fun day ended with little ones sharing pink colour candies with their friends.

Diwali Celebration

Diwali, the festival of lights, was celebrated with great fervor and zeal by the little dipsites of Nursery on Friday October 13, 2017. Children came dressed up in beautiful ethnic clothes. The special assembly commenced with the school prayer followed by a musical play based on the classic story of 'Ramayana' that was beautifully presented by the little ones. The assembly also comprised of a scintillating dance performance on the 'Diwali' song. As part of celebrations, children also participated in making 'Bandhanwaar'. Emphasis was laid on celebrating ‘Eco-friendly Diwali’ throughout the celebrations.

DURGA PUJA

The Durga Puja festival epitomizes the victory of Good over Evil. This was portrayed through a skit presented by the little ones in a special assembly organised on the occasion of ‘Durga Puja’ on October 26, 2017. The skit depicted Goddess Durga killing the demon called Mahishasura. The highlight of the skit was a vigorous and mesmerizing dance performance put up by the little ones which was thoroughly enjoyed by one and all.
